The German Supply Chain Act and its relevance for non-German companies

Effective 01.01.2023 the new German Supply Chain Act will enter into force. The webinar will cover in detail:

- Why this new law is relevant and creates stringent obligations even for non-German companies?
- What obligations non-German companies have under the new law?
- How companies can use the remaining time until January 2023 to become compliant with the requirements of the new Act?
- What companies must do not only to be compliant but to be an excellent partners for their German customers, to outperform and to win new business rather than losing as a laggard. For where Germany is leading, Europe and the world will surely follow.

Date: 21 June 2022
Time: 3pm-4.30pm Bangkok Time
Platform: Zoom

The link to the webinar will be shared with you 1 day before the event.
